Grammy gets ready

ENTERTAINMENT: GMM Grammy has raised the registered capital of its wholly owned subsidiary Music Copyright Collection, aiming for it to operate a mobile business.

Music Copyright's paid-up capital has more than doubled to 5 million from 2 million baht. The company name has also been changed to Digital Gen, according to a Grammy statement to the Stock Exchange of Thailand on Tuesday.

It plans to change the core business of the company from collecting music copyright fees to operating a mobile virtual network.
